The ninth annual Canyon Arts Festival will be held on January 24, 2009, at the Gold Canyon Elementary School Courtyard and Amphitheater, open to the public from 9:00 am until 3:00 pm.

The last eight years have seen the festival grow from 23 artists to over 70 artists and we expect the next festival to be even bigger. It will be even better, thanks to all of you who have made such valuable suggestions.

The Canyon Arts Festival is a non-profit event, a free gift to the community that is sponsored by the Gold Canyon Arts Council to promote both visual and performing arts in our community. We rely 90 percent or more on local artists, fine arts craftsmen and entertainers for the show; to encourage them and to demonstrate the great amount of talent we have in our community.

Artists are juried to ensure high quality, diversity, and suitability for our festival. All Artists must show recent pictures, brochures or actual work to the committee before being chosen. Not all applicants will be accepted.

A minimal fee for artists' spaces is requested to help cover expenses. The display areas are under the overhang of the walkways and may not be more than 5 feet in depth. Also, there is a courtyard area for approximately 30 display tents (10 by 10 feet) on the gravel (crushed granite) next to the walkways. We encourage those who have tents to take advantage of this area. Please take note of "Special Rules for Tents" on the Entry Form.

There will be food available from local organizations, and entertainment on the stage will be continuous throughout the day.

If you are interested in participating, please complete the accompanying entry form, and submit it by December 1, 2008. The applications will be reviewed and selections made by December 14, 2008.

If you have questions regarding the application, please call Becky Roth 480-474-2288. The application will also be available on our website: www.goldcanyonarts.org.

We are looking forward to seeing all of you and meeting more new artists.

Sincerely,

Becky Roth, Kay K. Olsson, Sherri Harris, Committee Chairs
