This uniquely talented classical crossover trio features soprano Erin Shields, baritone Giuseppe Spoletini, and the versatile David Shenon who sings and simultaneously plays piano and violin! O Sole Trio's shows have it all with innovative arrangements and their lush and mesmerizing voices which breathe new life into familiar toe-tapping favorites. They have taken concert halls by storm!

O Sole Trio continues to tour extensively throughout the United States. They are extremely proud to provide educational outreach concerts and masterclasses to children of all ages and economic backgrounds.

The Trio has a great understanding of how to relate to audiences of all ages from K-12 to adults. The children on the San Carlos Apache Reservation were absolutely enthralled with the group. The Trio made on-the-spot changes to the repertoire to better suit the individual audiences.
